
Fan Created Scenario.
Descent: Journeys in the Dark is copyright 2005-2006 Fantasy Flight Publishing. All images are used with permission.

The Mysterious Cave

By Matt Glotzbach

Scenario Background

While sleeping, you are awaken by noises that sound like fighting way off in the distance. U decide to find the rest of the party and head off and follow the noises. When you get there, you dont see anything, but you are still hearing the noises. Upon further exploration of the area, you see a stairwell leading underground.

Mission Goals

Your goal is to eliminate all of the mosters before leaving the maze. If you fail to eliminate all the mosters before leaving then they will be re-incarnated and will come back and destroy your town for causing them all of this grief. You begin this quest with 5 Conquest Tokens.

Important: The Treacherry Cards are as follows

Event- 3
Trap- 3
Monster-4

Treasure Chests are left up to the Discretion of the Overlord

New Area

After falling into the cave you see several ugly looking beasts that are feasting on the decaying corpses that are laying around the cavern. Along with them there are several vines that seem to be growing along the wall, but seem to be moving somehow.

New Area

You see several large statues throughout the rooms. These statues are beginning to crumble. Along with these statues, there are several large creatures that are playing catch with the bricks that have broken off the statue.

New Area

There are several large creatures that are just standing around and laughing at whats going on. These creatures also seem to be being fed some of the creatures that have died. Upon seeing the heroes, they stop eating and send their minions after you. It seems that the cave has turned against you.

The encounter marker in this area is a sword that that has special abilities. The Overlord will make up the stats for this sword. However, This sword once picked up can not be carried by anyone else. If the player who picked it up dies, then it is dropped right there. Monsters and familiars cant pick it up. If the heroes leave without the sword, it is lost.

Fan Created Scenario.
Descent: Journeys in the Dark is copyright 2005-2006 Fantasy Flight Publishing. All images are used with permission.